IF YOU ARE THINKING ABOUT LAUNCHING AN AMBITIOUS NEW BUSINESS IN THE ICT SECTOR, THEN IRELAND IS THE PLACE TO START.

Ireland has made a good job of building a proto-Silicon Valley. By attracting global high-tech names to the country, it provides a high-tech hinterland in which smaller companies can grow... a whole ecosystem of support.

START, GROW & PROSPER IN IRELAND.

Enterprise Ireland is responsible for the funding, development and international growth of innovative start-up companies in Ireland. With a network of more than 30 international offices, Enterprise Ireland partners with entrepreneurs and investors to help companies start, grow, innovate and win sales around the globe.

High growth sectors such as ICT, life sciences and financial services already have strong clusters within Ireland, providing the network and knowledge that entrepreneurs need to scale their business.

Enterprise Ireland is at the heart of this well established ecosystem, well connected to the supports a start-up requires ranging from funding, mentor support and strategic advice.

Enterprise Ireland has developed a €10 million fund for international start-ups which offers equity funding to leading edge teams to locate their start-up business in Ireland.

Ireland is a low bureaucracy, low tax environment that is supportive of entrepreneurs. We have the most business friendly tax regime of any country in Europe or the Americas.

We have a geographic position and membership of the EU that provides easy access to some of the richest markets on earth. Ireland is home to world class companies and, as a new start-up, you will have access to quality staff, investors, suppliers, research institutes and a wide range of other support services.
